About us

BELL have been enhancing ceramic products for more than thirty years and well known for its trust legacy and quality. It's unparallel range of options and superior construction, outstanding value and purity makes it more popular and first choice of customer. We call it " the sound of quality".

At Bell, we truly believe in INNOVATION. It's power to move things and thoughts faster and smoother keeps development at BELL continuous for 24 x7 – 365 days.

With a superior engineering and outstanding design, BELL continued to revolutionize its category. At BELL, each piece is targeted to the exacting standards and creative demands of the design industry professional. And every one gets the quality product in most efficient way and effective time possible.

" Our approach has been to listen to the design professional – all our products are result of listing to what design community needs. We set out to create innovative company that would be an asset to the contemporary designer, and response has been astounding. " Atul Patel, Bell Laminates Co-Founder.
